Long time dynamics of stratified fluids

Stefano Scrobogna[*1]

[1]Institut de Mathématiques de Bordeaux (IMB) – CNRS : UMR5251, Université Sciences et Technologies - Bordeaux I, Université Victor Segalen - Bordeaux II, Université Sciences et Technologies Bordeaux I, Université Victor Segalen – Bordeaux II – 351 cours de la Libération 33405 TALENCE CEDEX, France

Résumé

We discuss a model describing the motion to which is subject a density dependent fluid when it is not in a configuration of minimal gravitational potential in both full space and space periodic domains. We show that a disturbance of the density profile induces a motion which is well approximated by a two-dimensional, stratified Navier-Stokes sytem.

[*]Intervenant